

ALDRIDGE CLASS CURRICULUM LEAFLET

In Computing we will be:

- being internet secure and internet kind
- learning how to protect our online reputations
- learning how to create a strong password
- investigating coding sequences
- understanding debugging.

As Musicians we will be:

- consolidating our treble clef notes
- naming and clapping back rhythms
- composing simple melodies

As Artists we will be:

- Exploring Tudor portraits comparing the similarities and differences between them.
- Researching the colours and techniques used in Tudor paintings.
- Examining Tudor coats of arms, exploring the different examples that they represent.
- Using various tools and techniques to manipulate clay into a Tudor Rose.

As Design Technologists we will be:

- researching different designs of Tudor crowns.
- identifying the features of Tudor crowns
- to plan and design a Tudor crown.
- use various techniques to produce a cardboard Tudor crown.

As Scientists we will be:

- understanding why we have a skeleton.
- how different animal skeletons compare
- investigating muscles and how we use them

As Linguists we will be learning to:

- understand an increasing amount of familiar spoken words and phrases relating to greetings.
- recognise numbers from 0 to 10
- recognise colours
- identify musical instruments.

As Historians we will be:

- understanding the importance of Elizabeth I.
- comparing Tudor marriages and life for Tudor women compared to now.
- considering the strength and weaknesses of Elizabeth's suitors.
- Investigating Philip II of Spain.

In Religious Education we will be talking about:

- Rites of Passage and how these represent different milestones around the world.
- examining the process of a Christian Baptism.
- explain the significance of a Bar/Bat Mitzvah.
- investigate the significance of the 5Ks in Sikhism.

As Geographers we will be learning:

- how to use positional language and key vocabulary to describe positions
- to identify and describe different types of tourism and leisure activities in the UK.
- to develop our map reading skills

As Sportspeople we will be learning to:

- solve a range of problems when working with others
- follow a set of directions correctly
- learn the importance of being a team player.

In PSHCE we will be:

- talking about changes and how they make you feel.
- explaining the importance of teamwork.
- learning how to respond considerately to others.
- describing why disputes might happen and strategies to resolve them.
- Talking about responsibilities.